INTRODUCTION

Many of the Dublin Township Cemeteries are very old and a number of stones have disappeared over the years.

No physical trace of HERMAN or MILLER family cemeteries can be found, however, they appear on old county atlases. HEDGES and SMITH cemeteries, in Rockford, OH., were abandoned and the bodies supposedly buried elsewhere. Fortunately, a couple of gentlemen had read these inscriptions in the 1950's and they have been included in this volume.

With the erosion of these old stones, it has been very difficult to establish correct data. We did the best we could. Readings of these cemeteries were done by members of our Chapter in 1987 and 1988.

Our Chapter is not responsible for any errors in this publication.

NEW FRYSSINGER CEMETERY
aka Pleasant Grove Cemetery
Dublin Twp.

Located in Sec 1, 1/4 mile west of US 127 on SR 117. An older cemetery where one could see many indentations in ground from previous burials, but no stones left to mark who was buried there.

Land grant to Levi Boyer. Nathan Frisinger to Elders of Church of God.

OLD FRISINGER CEMETERY
aka Shindeldecker Cemetery
Dublin Twp.

A private cemetery at dead end of Godfrey Reserve Rd in Sec 15, off SR 117 way back in field with few remaining stones. Many broken and buried. The cemetery sits up on a mound as dirt around it was used to build the by-pass at Van Wert, OH.

Original grant to Lewis Godfrey with private plot started cal829 by William Frisinger.

RIVERSIDE CEMETERY

This cemetery is the largest in Dublin Twp. with old and new sections assigned letters. See map for location of both sections.

Most sections were read north to south starting in the northeast part of that section, with exception of Old Section E; Old Section F; and New Section A where the readings started near the roadway. See (★) on map.

Read September & October, 1988 by Mary Colson, Marilyn Helmer, Vada Morr, and Edith Gillespie.

ROEBUCK CEMETERY

Dublin Twp.

Located in Godfrey Reserve Tract 5 on Frysinger Rd. (extended on Cress Rd.). Take US 33 west from US 127 to Frysinger Rd., go north about 1-1/2 miles and cross St. Marys River where cemetery is on east side near a curve.

Originally owned by Lewis Godfrey, then purchased by Branson and L. G. Roebuck for private cemetery. Now turned over to Township Trustees.

SMITH CEMETERY
aka Work, First & East Cemetery
Dublin Twp.

Located in Sect 16, original part of Shane's Grant. Cemetery was directly east and back of abandoned Railroad Depot in Rockford, OH.

Most bodies were removed and buried elsewhere, except for one stone which remains outside the fence. Ground was leveled and now used as a play ground.

SMITH CEMETERY

aka Work, First & East Cemetery

With its entrance on Pearl St., this cemetery is located back of an abandoned railroad depot in the heart of Rockford, OH. In 1958 there were plans for it to be razed in order to make a playground. The last burial here is suppose to be that of Mrs. Painter, mother of John. The grounds were laid out by David A. Work.

The following inscriptions were copied by George R. Kinder and a young friend, Robert Ebersole in 1955. One stone remains outside the fence of this playground as of 1988.

STRINGTOWN CEMETERY
aka Otterbein Cemetery
Dublin Twp.

Located in Sec 28 on SR 707 approximately 3 miles west of US 127 next to Otterbein United Brethren in Christ Church.

Age and condition of the older section of this cemetery indicates a good probability of unmarked graves.

Original grant to Conrad Koepple. Acquired by U. B. Church from Leonard Deal 1851. Deed to Dublin Township Trustees 1896.

STRINGTOWN CEMETERY
aka Otterbein Cemetery

OLD SECTION - rows were read south to north, starting in southeast corner near the road. See (★) on map. Read by Florence Gause a number of years ago, and re-read September & October, 1988.
